My Road Goes Ever On A Timeless Journey

Secondary

- 1 Writing can help a person think through positions on faith and religion, society and culture. What major themes does the author cover in her blogs?
- 2 Are the author's reflections relatable to society at large? How?
- 3 How would you define the tone of her writing? What makes you say so?
- 4 What was your favorite reflection? Why?
- 5 Do you know anyone who might enjoy one of these slice-of-life reflections? Will you share them from a personal perspective?

Adult/Book Clubs/Journal

- 1 Were there any thoughts in these reflections that touched on something I can relate to personally? How did they make me feel?
- 2 Considering society issues from another person's perspective can offer a wider lens to consider our life journey. Was there any reflection that helped me on my journey?
- 3 Are there topics I wish the author would cover in the future? Why? Could I write about them and find a new understanding in the process?
- 4 Did any unresolved issues arise in my mind while I read these reflections? What were they? How could I face them in a healthy manner?
- 5 Are there any reflections I would like to share with someone else? Who? How could I positively do that?
